Rationale

This programme provides educators with the knowledge and skills to implement outcome-based assessment strategies in the psychomotor and affective domains, aligning with the principles of India's National Education Policy (NEP). The course focuses on the design, execution, and evaluation of assessments that measure students' practical skills and emotional development.

Programme Outcomes

- Comprehend the fundamentals of outcome-based education and assessment.
- Recognize and articulate the significance of the psychomotor and affective domains.
- Design and implement assessment tools that effectively measure outcomes in these domains.
- Align their assessment practices with the objectives and guidelines of the NEP.
- Apply best practices in the continuous evaluation and improvement of educational strategies.
